

Hello!

Name: Carrie-Ann Slade

Area: Staffordshire

About me:

Hey !

I'm Carrie-Ann I am one of the tutors at SEIN . I love to encourage and support students creatively with their views and ideas at the heart of each session.

I like to work in a therapeutic way that will build confidence in each student.

I have been working with children and young people for over 10 years and have developed a way of working that is supportive and understanding so each child feels valued.

I am a creative person and in my own time love crafting and baking. I like to keep upto date with the latest beauty and fashion trends. I also like to go to the gym and exploring the great outdoors.

I'm looking forward to meeting you 😊 .
